

Label Interesting Popular Comments VTB 24 and "Aeroflot" has launched Internet payment gateway

Passengers of Aeroflot flew by credit cards. Last Thursday, the leading domestic air carrier, together with the Bank VTB 24 introduced a new payment solution. It allows customers of JSC Aeroflot to pay for tickets by Bank cards via the Internet. Technology not only facilitates the process of acquiring a travel document but also significantly increases the level of security when making a payment. Authorization of Bank cards to pay for tickets via the website of JSC Aeroflot is carried out via special payment gateway. As noted in the press release further cooperation with VTB 24 and Aeroflot in the field of Internet acquiring involves the expansion of the range of accepted payment systems. In particular it is planned to use alternative payment methods including WebMoney, etc.. VTB 24 sees the Internet acquiring as one of the priority directions of development of retail banking business for the next 35 years says a member of the Board of VTB 24 George Gorshkov. In turn, the Deputy General Director of Aeroflot Sergei Kiryushin said that the introduction of a fully functional and secure payment solutions will allow to complete construction of an effective instrument Internet sales

Link to article:: Label Interesting Popular Comments VTB 24 and "Aeroflot" has launched Internet payment gateway